MRS. C. F. ZOELLNER DIES IN WISCONSIN

ESTEEMED LADY PASSES AWAY
SUDDENLY WHILE VISIT-
ING RELATIVES

Mrs. C. F. Zoellner, a highly esteemed lady, residing southwest of Groton, died suddenly at Cochrane, Wis., Monday morning, at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Von Wald, at which place she was visiting.

Mrs. Zoellner left for Wisconsin a couple of months ago, not feeling her usual self, and it was hoped that a change of climate would restore her customary health. While there she had recovered to an amazing extent, and was preparing to return home in a few days.

It was while attendants were changing bed clothing that she suddenly expired, and her death came as a great shock to those near her, as well as her many friends and relatives in this section, who had heard of her supposed gradual recovery with a great deal of satisfaction.

Mrs. Zoellner was a very highly esteemed lady of Gem township, beloved and admired by all who knew her. The death is a source of keen sorrow and mourning among her hosts of friends.

A short service will be held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the country home and the remains brought to Groton, and the funeral held in Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. E. W. Spence at 2 p. m., and the remains laid to rest in Groton cemetery.

The Independent joins with the family's host of friends in extending sympathy and condolence in their hour of sorrow.
